Number of schools assigned to the Deputy Inspectors of Schools for inspection in South Kanara.

741 Q.—Mr. A. B. SHETTY: Will the hon. the Minister for Education nd Local Self-Government be pleased to state—

(a) the number of senior and junior Deputy Inspectors of Schools in outh Kanara;

(b) the number of schools assigned to these officers for inspection;

(c) whether the District Educational Council has asked for a larger umber of inspecting officers in its last administration report and if so, on hat grounds; and

(d) whether the Government have considered the necessity of appointg additional hands for inspecting schools in South Kanara?

A.—(a) Five and four, respectively.

(b) The number of elementary schools for boys in the district on 31st March 1928 was 1,202. Information is not available as to the number of schools assigned to each officer. A Deputy Inspector is expected to inspect 133 schools on the average.

(c) & (d) The latest report of the District Educational Council available with Government is for the year 1927-28. The report does not contain any suggestion for an increase in the number of inspecting officers.

Mr. A. B. SHETTY:—"May I know whether it is found that a Deputy nspector is able to properly inspect as many as 133 schools in the year?"

The hon. Dr. P. SUBBARAYAN:—"With the number at our disposal we have got to divide the schools among them."

Mr. A. B. SHETTY:—"May I know whether the Government propose to dd to the inspection staff?"

The hon. Dr. P. SUBBARAYAN:—"There is no such proposal at present."
